This Weeks Run...

Run No:	Hares:	Place:	Date:
1157	Pink Poofter & Hash Bike	Aberdeen Reservoir	June 28 th 2009

The Warm Up

It was nice to see that the Wanchai Hash was going to have a real Filipina run that was actually going to be set by a real Filipina. I was horrified to read Bravefart's dispatches while on holiday that Filipina Runs were actually being set by Gwilos! The shame, what sort of GM would allow this?

Speaking of the GM, there we were huffing and puffing up the hill, and this was just to get to A. Not being very smart, we were not going to be "lazy" by taking a taxi. The smarter Filipinas Hickey Slut and Melamine Girl whizzed past us laughing from the comfort of their cab.

Up the hill at A rain was off and on, the ground saturated, the sky overcast and misty. The run a Hash Bike birthday run assisted by Cookie. The briefing mentioned rocks, ropes and other assorted hazards. Perfect!

The Run

From A the pack went up to the catch water where we ran for about 1k. Then it got real interesting as we went down a rain swollen riverbed ensuring wet shoes and then some for everybody. We reached the finger extension of the reservoir where we had to negotiate with ropes and deal with large amounts of mud. Lots of fun! But a few killjoys such as our GM took the nearby path thus circumnavigating our hare's great efforts. Speaking of the hare, there she was camera in hand to laugh and photograph everyone falling all over themselves.

A proper trail was found, to go around the rest of the reservoir back to the dam. Cookie was there to give us the option of returning to A or enjoying a scenic loop. I opted for the scenic loop going down the river next to large pipes and continuing the loop back up to another catch water where there was a Rambo Wimp split, Seeing that the Rambos went down a steep muddy hill, I went into wimp mode and made my way back to A.

For the Rambos according to Cookie, there was virgin trail through villages, shiggy not used for ten years and featured beautiful views of Aberdeen and the South China Sea. Caligula may not have been as impressed having ripped his leg up on some shiggy.

On-On

We were lucky to not have rain for most of the day. But this suddenly ended as the circle broke to make the walk down the hill. A large downpour drenched everyone, umbrellas offering little protection. We all made our entrance into the Thai restaurant fully soaked. Nice Thai food and just a couple of things to note. One would be Indy Anus being befuddled as to how she missed a text message I sent to her. Turns out her mobile is at the bottom of Hebe Haven. Go figure. G-String was noted to be blooming now that Doom was away. And everyone at our table will have a lifetime supply of banana cake if Imelda 2 gets a nice hash name.

It was noted by the hares that it was a perfect run, food was on the table as we arrived and only $10HK over quote at $80HK a head.
