This Weeks Run...

Run No:	Hares:	Place:	Date:
1196	Bravefart	Aberdeen Promenade	21 st February 2010

The Warm Up

Hashers are indeed simple people, they expect to be led by the nose to the exact start point of the run.

So, "The Promenade" didn't really help when the Hare (singular, due to the pilot co-hare crash landing in Anchorage, Alaska) hasn't marked the start very well. So "pedantic" hashers, arriving early, made base camp in the wrong spot, as no markings were spotted out of the waterfront subway.

When pressed on the lack of markings, an obviously under pressure hare exploded for "Neckie Of The Day" - and proceeded to show the waiting hashers markings. Yes, indeed there were markings, but not in the tunnel, or in the obvious places on the promenade, but actually on the road side.

Hmmm. Problem solved. Scottish history of navigation and mapping shows why the Scots never got any further than a few hundred yards outside of Scotland other than William Wallace's ("Braveheart") venture over the English border in 1280.

The run

Off we went along Aberdeen Praya Road, with Caligula blazing trail after Rawhide who had set off while the Briefing was still going on. 550 metres of concrete led the pack over the bridge back into Aberdeen Centre and a Check taking us left towards Tin Wan Hill Road. By this stage Hopeless was in front, pursued by the visiting Hash Flash "David Wu". Climbing up the terracing was a wrong guess, and let Monkey Sh!t and CPH to break out in front. These four continued to jockey for pole position throughout the run, despite the Hash NOT being a race.....

So it was up into the hills of Tin Wan Estate, Caligula once again catching up with the front group, hotly followed by F³M and another visitor/returnee Jelly Fish. One particular Check saw Monkey Sh!t head left with Caligula guffawing loudly - "Well that takes care of him, he's off to PokFuLam!".

The long shiggy path came out on the contour path heading towards the HK Trail where the W/R split took place. The Rambos continued on, with a sneaky Check taking us up and over a neat trail back onto the lower contour path (See the line heading inwards on the GPS below). Then heading back towards Aberdeen we were lulled into a false sense of security with CPH, Hopeless and David running down Aberdeen Reservoir Road, all fully expecting an "On Home" at any minute. Even a Check at the intersection of Peel Rise didn't faze the FRB's..... until they realised there was no further markings down the road.

Hopeless went back up, took Peel Rise, while the two Hash Flashes went for the Yue Kwong Road option. Peel Rise was the right choice, and calling on Caligula up the hill allowed CPH, David and the recovering Monkey Shlt to realign their sights to the climb up into the cemetery.

Tale of Two Titties was caught at this point on the high point of the cemetery, and The Virgin Mary on the last Check, which went straight on down the stairs and across the bridge to the finish.

An excellent run for the lone hare that saw Wimps and Rambos come in pretty much together around 60 minutes, with the trailing group of Tiny Teepee, Happy Valley an even Motormouth all in within 1.5 hours.

Here's the GPS of the Rambos...

The Circle

Hopeless starts the circle as we're lacking a GM and AGMs for the 2nd week running...

- Hare called in for haring on his own
- All Americans & All pilots to represent the absent co-hare
- Happy Valley & Tale of 2 Titties for turning up on the right day
- Hare for losing the plot with the simpleton hashers who couldn't follow his markings to the start
- Virgin Mary - managed to go a whole week without asking about the run on Facebook
- Bware Wabbit (Hare Raiser) - claims he is "not a committee member" when asked to give down downs
- Newcomer David - racing hash flash and taking photos on trail and using the same make and model of camera. (It remains to be seen if David will turn up next week with a shaved head to complete the transformation).
- Rawhide - for coming on the hash while husband "burns in hell"
- Vomit - late
- Visitors - Splash (from Fiji), Jellyfish (from US), David (from US) - none had had sex recently (or it wasn't very memorable). Tale of 2 Titties seems very interested in David however, so there may be action on the horizon.

CPH Circle

- David for hash flash impersonations.
- Monkey Sh*t bringing study material on the hash
- Happy Valley & Tale of 2 Titties for being amenable to "boob photos"
- Hare for buying lollipops. Tiny Teepee has been admiring the sucking actions displayed by Happy Valley & Virgin Mary but tactically ignored Caligula
- Irish Spew has taken up the study of psychology - would he care to analyse Motormouth, Vomit & Rawhide

Hopeless Circle

- Monkey Sh*t's wife has found the WH3 website and is not too impressed by Dances with Dogs hash rules (for the uninitiated, basically, no poofers, absolutely no poofers, no training, no poofers and did I mention absolutely no fucking poofers under any circumstances ever). Monkey Sh*t has been granted grudging permission to come back, but has been told he cannot go to the "Good Thai On On" (cancelled in any case) because "all Thai women are prostitutes". Next week's On On will be in Balalaika in LKF for Russian action.

Humble suggestion to the RA - I know he just got named, but can we rename him "Pleasures of the Flesh"?

- CPH & Hickey Slut - almost new shoes
- Tight Clit - excited by the lollipops - $19 for an "unending supply of blow jobs"

- Dick the Sh*t - dirtiest man on the hash
- Bware Wabbit - for not heeding Caligula that today was the 22nd birthday of the Wanchai Hash.

Humble note to the various Captain(s) Anal out there - the 21st birthday run was in April last year, how can the 22nd birthday be in February???? I know the lunar calendar's a bit skew-whiff but this doesn't make any sense at all. The scribe expects a bulging postbag...

- Monkey Sh*t - disrespecting the dead by loudly calling On in the graveyard.
- Caligula - not paid hash cash
- F3M - making underhand profits by not giving the right change
- Monkey Sh*t "always shoots his bolt early". The Thai waitresses won't mind.
- Motormouth - new GM of the Sai Kung Saturday hash
- Irish Spew - a curious man with curious habits, like taping his nipples with elastoplast and having Motormouth (allegedly) pull it off them after sweaty exertions on the run...

CPH Circle

- Hopeless & F3M - for dualling on trail with blue chalk.
- Rawhide - quietly hitting the bottle
- Bondi - didn't understand the point of the shiggy short cut on the Rambo section. The point was it cut out 3km of HK trail stage 3.

The floor opens

Monkey Sh*t calls the Hare for setting a Rambo route that didn't involve spikes, thorns, rocks, death defying danger or grievous bodily harm.

We can arrange some pain at a "Good On On" later...

Shitlipstick calls CPH for having the idea of opening the "Young Filipina Hand" to rival the "Old China Hand". He then calls Bware Wabbit who is running out of Grecian 2000 as a result of the Greek crisis. Finally calls Hopeless, overheard 40 metres into the run sighing "here we go again".

Tiny Teepee calls in all those out very late and still at the hash the next day: Legover (5 am) & CPH (3 am).

Rawhide calls Motormouth for a suspicious late night liaison with a Finn...

Hopeless calls Shitlipstick to thank the ex-RA for the good running weather and then calls Bondi Barbie for stealing government issue hospital slippers.

Returnees - Dick the Sh*t, Jellyfish, Caligula, Irish Spew

Bondi takes the floor for a very long down down to explain why he couldn't set the run without any co-hares, however this backfires when Hopeless reminds him that the stand-in hare's co-hare bailed out yesterday...

Bware Wabbit - informs the pack of next week's run - #1197 set by Hopeless & Haggis (assuming he has doused the fires of hell).

Location - Hopeless Centre on Queen's Road East, sitting out area by CC Wu Building. German "ONON" in King Ludwig's Bier Keller next door to the run start.
