This Weeks Run...

Run No:	Hares:	Place:	Date:
1278	Shitler	Cadogan Street Temporary Garden, Kennedy Town	18 Sept 2011

Arriving at the run this week we were greeted by an army of identically kitted-out hashers who it turns out were Sandakan H3, on tour from Malaysia. And a fine bunch they were too, and lucky in their timing to experience a Shitler bunker run in Kennedy Town.

At 4pm, Shitler gave the barest minimum of instructions (something about an elevator ground floor) and we were off with Hopeless, Captain Pubic, Pinkie and other speedsters zipping off inland and across a road before the traffic lights changed. Meanwhile, the rest of the pack waited patiently on red and we were off again up Cadogan Street and to a set of steep steps at the back. On along to another set of deluxe steps and to the elevator which descended down to the ground floor.

From there, we headed up Pokfield Road and then onto a narrow set of steps with BOF leading the way followed by Lily the Drink. At the top, trail looped up a road past a cemetery and then right passing Greenery Gardens, to the road leading up Mount Davis.

There, chalk led right up a steep hill and along before dropping down on the road with Caligula, Bware Wabbit, Precious Pussy, Freewheel, Dr Doom, Lost In Space, Virgin Mary and others scrambling over the fence. Meanwhile, Freefuck led a bunch of short cutters along the road up to the service reservoir.

Chalk headed up and looped around Mount Davis along some cunning up-and-down trails (some roped) before coming out at the top of various military facilities chalked up with Shitler markings such as "Shitler Rules WH3" before heading down past the YMCA ("check-in times 15:00-23:00") and down various paths until we hit Victoria Road. Past the newly built Sail Building and on along back to the start.

A good run along winding trails with nice Wimps and Rambos options. On On at local Chinese restaurant.
